

Greece Exam

Mr. Jenkins

World History

Written Portion: Each question is to be answered on wiki and sent to me in email format. Write your responses in a three paragraph format using the following rubric (attached) for grading.

Sample Rubric for Explanatory Writing

Level 4	Level 3	Level 2	Level 1
The text is well organized and well written.	The text is well organized.	The text is organized with simple ideas.	The text has limited organization.
The text conveys a clear message and main ideas are well supported with evidence.	The ideas are clearly stated but not always supported with sufficient evidence.	Although the ideas are clear, the details are limited and inconsistently supported with evidence.	The ideas are unclear. Some details are irrelevant, do not support the main idea, or fail to give evidence.
The sentences are varied and word choice is appropriate.	The writer uses good sentence variety.	The writer relies on simple sentence structures and basic but appropriate vocabulary.	The writer shows limited sentence variety and word choice.
There are few, if any, errors in grade-appropriate spelling and punctuation.	Word choice is appropriate and there are only minor errors in spelling and punctuation.	Some errors are found in grade-appropriate spelling and punctuation.	There are a number of sentence, spelling, and punctuation errors.

Completed exam must be sent as a single email to receive credit.

Due: November 4 by 4 P.M.

Questions:

1. Socrates left no writings or recordings of his beliefs, yet his philosophies still impact Western thought. From the writings of Plato, we know Socrates debated morality and how individuals should conduct their lives. Explain the following quote reflecting upon the role of citizen and government using our class discussions and activities. (10 points)

Knowledge is the only good and ignorance the only evil.

2. Greece is often viewed as the beginnings of western civilization. Choose (1) contribution as the most important to the advancement of society and explain why! (10 points)

Choose One:

1. In what ways did the Greek play Antigone display issues that continue to be reflected in American society?
2. Do you think Antigone is a feminist or anti-feminist play? Cite examples from the play to support your opinion that women are portrayed in a favorable/unfavorable light.

